

This graphic shows the area north of Hale St. essentially centered on the Crow Lane landfill. The area forms the bowl which is northern end of the Little River watershed (very roughly outlined in blue). The 3-D topographic map was produced using Delorme Topo USA V3 with a vertical exaggeration of 8x.

